Goblins came out in large numbers at last week's Elba-Daleville football game and this distinguished looking goblin wandered the Elba sidelines pulling for the Tigers. Elba Football highlights are on Page 9, while a visit to the Haunted House appears on Page 12.

Holley & Foshee selected among outstanding legislators

Seven senators and 17 representatives have been selected by their peers as outstanding members of the Alabama legislature in 1986. Doug Amos, president of the Alabama League of Savings Institutions, has announced.

Local senator receiving the most votes was Crum Foshee, Andalusia. Representative nominee included Jimmy Holley, Elba.

Sponsored by the Alabama League, the outstanding legislator program is designed to "recognize and honor in a special way the outstanding members of the Alabama legislature and to call public attention to the positive and constructive aspects of their public service," Amos said. The program was instituted in 1983. The "outstanding legislator" in the Senate and House of Representatives will be announced and honored at an awards banquet in Montgomery, Dec. 3, the trade association executive said. "The member of the Senate and the House receiving the most votes as tabulated and certified by a Montgomery law firm will be declared outstanding."

Amos pointed out that the five senators and fifteen representatives receiving the most votes normally are certified as outstanding legislators and are invited to the awards banquet but that tie votes this year necessitated the additional nominees.

Operation Santa Claus is underway

Mrs. Glenda Frazier, of the Coffee County Dept. of Human Resources, formerly the Dept. of Pensions and Security, states that "Operation Santa Claus" is now underway, and persons wishing to donate toys to the activity should take them to the Elba Police Dept. Deadline for receiving the toys is

Dec. 5. These used toys will be taken to Ft. Rucker to be repaired, after which they will be delivered back to Elba to be distributed to children in the area.

Anyone with questions may contact Mrs. Frazier, Community Resource Specialist, at 897-3424.

FUGITIVE RECAPTURED BY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT . . . A fugitive that escaped three weeks ago was recaptured last week by members of the Coffee County Sheriff's Dept. after an Elba resident spotted it in the family swimming pool. The fugitive, Zack Royce Goat, alias "Tom," was described as standing 3'5" tall and weighing 90 pounds, and reportedly escaped from his owner three weeks ago at the Elba livestock barn on Hwy. 84 West in Elba. A caller reported the goat was getting in her pool, and after spotting the goat, trustees of the Coffee County Jail chased it for almost a mile, before capturing the elusive escapee. Chief Jailer Zack Ennis is pictured above with the fugitive only moments prior to the goat's transfer to its owners.

Elba votes to keep city dry

The voters of Elba decided Tuesday they didn't want the legalized sale of alcoholic beverages within the city. The vote was close, with only 26 votes separating the wet and the dry. A total of 608 voters cast "no" votes, and 572 cast theirs for the "yes" - or wet side. The vote was officially certified at 10 a.m. Wednesday by the Elba City Council.

This was the first time Elba voters had journeyed to the polls on this matter since the Alabama legislature voted to allow municipal option in cities of more than 4,000 population. Enterprise was the first to vote on this option and approved legal sales over a year ago.

It will be 705 days before this matter can again be on the ballot in Elba, according to state law. This means, for all practical purposes, that it will be November, 1988, because the local option must be on the ballot with something else and an election can't be called just for this purpose.

Mayor Bob English, speaking for the city council Wednesday, said, "We appreciate the manner in which both sides conducted this campaign. It speaks well for our citizens. We can now move forward without a lot of wounds to heal among our friends."

Guy Hunt wins

over Bill Baxley

The general election in Alabama Tuesday resulted in the election of the first Republican governor in over 100 years. Guy Hunt defeated Democrat Bill Baxley by an impressive margin. Along the way he carried Baxley's home county of Houston as well as Coffee County.

Jim Folsom Jr. did as expected and won his race for lieutenant governor. This race was clear from early on, with Folsom never trailing in the polls. There was special interest in this race locally because of Folsom's close ties with Coffee County people and his many relatives here.

The race for U.S. Senator was, and still may be, a cliff hanger. Apparently Richard Shelby has unseated the Republican incumbent Jeremiah Denton, by a very slim margin. Denton has had the benefit of three visits to the state by President Reagan, and the backlash against the Democratic Party, but it wasn't enough to beat off the former U.S. Representative from Tuscaloosa.

Denton was never able to shake his image of not visiting the grassroots areas, being inaccessible, and voting to cut Social Security. Shelby too has ties in this area, with his wife growing up in Kinston, and her parents being well-respected educators in the area, as well as having other relatives in the Elba area.

There was no race between Republican U.S. Congressman Bill Dickinson and his Democratic opponent Mercer Stone. Dickinson won by about a two-to-one margin. He first won election in the Goldwater sweep of 1964 and has returned to office every two years since, sometimes with little opposition, as this year, and at other times after a hard-fought campaign.

The vote on the tobacco tax was fairly close with only a few hundred votes separating the winning "yes" votes from the "no" votes. The money from this tax, when actually imposed, will be divided equally among the volunteer fire departments within the county. No official figures were available at presstime.

Glen Browder won his race for Secretary of State against a Republican challenger, Jim Whitley. The same for Charles Martin in his race to replace Jim Folsom Jr. on the Public Service Commission. He was opposed by Republican James Bacon. Former University of Alabama quarterback Steadman Shealy Jr. won a seat on the State Board of Education by defeating Republican Bill Lupinacci to represent the Second District.

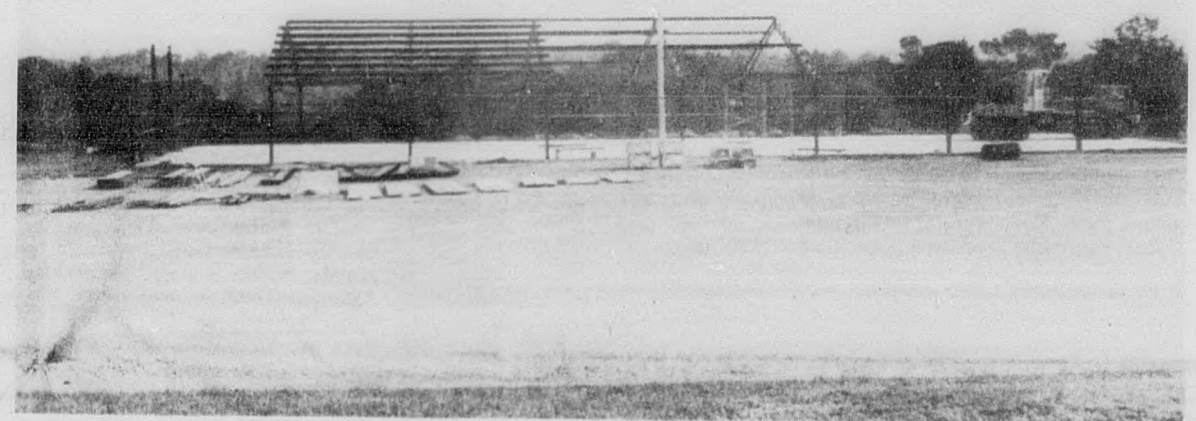

The new county commission district in Coffee County will be represented by Damascus Crittenden Jr. after he out-pollied challenger Republican B.M. Bowdon.

Military votes could change election

An interesting sidelight in the Tuesday election is the impact of the overseas military absentee votes in the U.S. Senate race. These people who choose to vote have an additional ten days for their ballots to arrive back with the official absentee counters, which makes Richard Shelby's narrow lead

NEW COUNTY BUILDING UNDER CONSTRUCTION . . . Steel beams begin to take shape at the Coffee County Farm Center, in New Brockton where a new multi-purpose building is going up. Construction costs are being covered by the state and the building, expected to be completed in the Spring of 1987, is planned for use by all residents of the county.

Building added to county complex

Construction is continuing on schedule at the new multi-purpose building being constructed at the Coffee County Farm Center in New Brockton, and commissioner Jimmy Bryan expects the building to be ready to serve the needs of county residents as soon as the spring of 1987.

The building, which is being financed through state funding, is being built between the farm center arena and the office complex, is estimated to cost $70,000, and will consist of a large one-room structure with an open side facing the road. The building is expected to be used for various activities, including livestock shows, farmers' markets, arts and crafts shows and 4-H functions.

"The building will complement the current facilities at the farm center," said Commissioner Bryan, "and at the same time be perfect for use by itself. We hope the building will become a popular place for all residents of the county and be used by all. This multi-purpose building will be the realization of many years of work by many people and we all hope it lives up to the expectations we have."

The building was originally planned in the early 1970's; however, funding was not available and plans were put on hold until last year when local legislators Sen. Crum Foshee and Rep. Jimmy Holley worked with the commission to acquire the funds from the state. A first allotment of $25,000 was received last year, with an additional allotment of $100,000 included in the current budget for the state. The county has provided over $30,000 in in-kind services and the project is finally nearing completion.

The expected revenue of almost $125,000 from the state will also allow us to do much needed renovations to the farm center arena," added Bryan. "The arena is a beautiful building with unlimited potential, but as it is now it can't be used because of poor acoustics and a lack of adequate heating and cooling. If enough funds are left over when the new building is completed, we hope to make the arena a suitable place to hold not only farm shows but concerts and other worthwhile forms of entertainment. The farm center arena needs to be used, and hopefully in years to come it will be."

Planned renovations to the arena include new seating, a public address system, heating and cooling system and much-improved acoustical settings.

All work on the new multi-purpose building is being done by county maintenance engineer John Flowers and inmate labor from the county jail, as well as equipment operators from the county highway department.

Commission to grant raises

The Coffee County Commission held a special budget hearing on Thursday, Oct. 30, at the courthouse in Elba and verbally agreed to give all county employees a raise in pay effective Jan. 1, 1987.

The commission failed to grant any raises when it adopted its annual budget in late September due to a lack of funds; however, the commission recently learned it would receive approximately $69,000 more in ad valorem tax revenue than expected and Thursday agreed to use the funds to grant the pay raises. The amount of the pay raises has yet to be determined, but a formula is expected to be worked out prior to the first of the year.

Additional funds are also expected to come from the county's share of the newly-imposed 1-cent sales tax, of which the commission will receive 25 percent after the state legislature returns to session early next year.

Brainstorms

With Ferrin Cox

WZTZ, the new FM station in Elba, has apparently gotten off to a good start. We salute the Holders on this new venture and hope them every success. It will be a plus to the people of this area, and one of those additional benefits is the live broadcasting of the state football playoff games each week starting Friday night. Unless someone is sick or working they can probably attend this first home game, but when we start traveling to the opposite ends of the state, it will be a real benefit to football fans. Give them your support (both the football team and the radio station).

The wet-dry vote in Elba Tuesday was very close, with the vote to remain dry winning by only 26 votes. That means that if only 14 people had voted differently, the city would now be wet. Regardless of the outcome of the vote, those closely working in the campaign are to be saluted. Never have we seen such an emotional issue handled with such dignity. Preachers are people of strong convictions and it is awful easy for them to panic when they see the community "going to the devil." Locally, however, we saw a class bunch of preachers performing a class act. Also the folks who really wanted Elba wet have been ladies and gentlemen about the whole thing.

The new governor of Alabama has our condolences. That was our thought before we knew which one was the winner. It will be a hard four years, and that is from not less an expert than retiring Gov. George Wallace. Cuts in federal funds must be made up or services cut - we all understand that. Now added on to that, Hunt, a Republican, will be working with a Democratic legislature that has left an impression of being strongly behind Bill Baxley for the governor's office.

The winner of the recipe contest at the recent peanut festival is still a high school girl. We happen to know Della Ellis, her parents and her brother, and they are all good folks. We have watched Della grow up, participate in almost everything a young lady could get involved in, and her parents have worked overtime to help her and her brother. We have no doubt this young lady will be heard from a lot more. There is also another observation here: Mr. and Mrs. Ellis are totally devoted to helping their children develop to their fullest potential and we wonder how many more great youngsters have become lost because of some parents don't have that devotion.

Finally the elections are over. This has been a tiring year politically. We have always liked listening to and talking about politics, but this year has given us our fill. We find ourselves changing the subject or wandering off when the subject is political.

If there is any doubt in your mind about the current trend of interest rates, just check the latest announcement of the going rate of U.S. saving bonds. The rate for at least the next six months will be 6.06%, a considerable drop from the days of runaway interest rates. However, credit card companies haven't gotten the word yet, we read a release from a government watchdog agency that some plastic card folks were charging "only 18 percent." The best thing for us working folks is to divide each of our cards into two or three sections and deposit them in the nearest trash can. However, you ain't gonna do it... and I ain't either!

There is even a debate over the new practice of adding color to old black and white movies. Those complaining about the practice are upset over "messing up the classics." We see no problems at all. First the owner of the film should be able to do it or she please. Secondly, if someone really likes the black and white "classic," they have no problem, as the actual old prints themselves will not be changed - just get one of those. Otherwise spend your time reading a good book or fishing.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Ricky,
The class of 1956 wishes to express its appreciation to the Elba City School superintendent, the Board of Education, principal, Home Economics teachers, cafeteria personnel, the entire staff and student body of Elba High School, the people of Elba, and our specially invited guests, for making Homecoming 1986 a very special event in our lives.

We know and appreciate the work involved in all homecoming activities. In an age when traditions are falling by the wayside, we are especially thankful for our school and the people of Elba for continuing to support this wonderful tradition.

For those of you who may not know, the events sponsored by the school honoring the 30-year class each year include a tea on Friday afternoon, riding a float in the parade, a dinner before the game in the high school cafeteria and then attending the game.

Those of you who have already experienced your 30-year reunion and homecoming know how special this event is, and those who have not have a very real pleasure in store, one that will have to be experienced, as words cannot describe it.

Again, we say thank you.

Class of 1956
Betty Hudson

Dear Sir:

Please allow me to use this means to thank the spectators and citizens of the Zion Chapel Community in their gracious donation to the Elba Rescue Squad.

We have enjoyed being able to cover the Zion Chapel home football games this year and as usual, the people there have welcomed us and with your monetary contributions, it will be most helpful to our squad.

We look forward to serving Zion Chapel in the years to come and wish the school much success in all of its phases of endeavor.

Sincerely yours,
Sonny Inman

possibly in danger of becoming a narrow defeat. There are 76,000 people in Alabama eligible to exercise such privileges, and 38 from Coffee County have chosen to do so. With the record of 1980 and 1984 showing that 70 percent of these folks voted Republican and Denton being retired military and ex-POW, the winning margin will surely be very close, whichever way it goes.

Of the 38 Coffee County citizens who applied for absentee ballots to be mailed overseas, apparently none were returned in time to be counted in the Tuesday vote count. They have until Nov. 14 to get these ballots back.

Samson Fall Festival To Take Place Saturday

The Iris Garden Club, a member of Garden Clubs of Alabama, Inc., will host the Fourth Annual Samson Fall Festival that will take place Saturday, November 8, at the historic Samson Log House Museum, corner of North Broad and Sellers Street. The day will begin at 9:00 a.m. with the fourth annual 5K Yesteryear Run and continuous entertainment will last until 4:00 p.m.

The festival spotlights the historical rural south. Besides featuring the Bedside cabin filled with a collection of Wiregrass memorabilia and the artifacts displayed by the Samson Museum Commission in the dog trot log Gochagan house for the visitors to see, history will be relived in a portrayal of the war between the states at the all day affair.

Capt. Steve Mercer of Company H of the 19th Alabama Infantry will bring his confederate troop to do mock battle and other skirmishes. They will camp overnight near the festival grounds and will perform for the crowd throughout the day of the festival. The group of week-end warriors is one of six infantry units in Alabama who schedule such historical events for a hobby. Some in the group did bit acting parts in the TV movie, "The North and South." Mercer plans to recognize local residents whose fathers fought in the war between the states. A brief ceremony will follow the special Veterans Day activities scheduled at 10:00 a.m. when the 98th Army Band will pay tribute to veterans from all branches of service, including WWI veterans. A flag pole will be erected at the museum site and be dedicated to all Geneva County Veterans.

Other performers at the festival that give glimpse into the past will be the Country Kickers as they set their heels to clanging out a fast paced rhythmic beat country tune. Ho Daddy and The Swamp Angels from Dothan can handle country, gospel and bluegrass music with ease and will be asked to hold the attention of the crowd once they start pickin' and grinnin' at 2:30 p.m. As the Samson High School Band plays several patriotic selections early in the morning, everyone will see why they have received such superior ratings at several band contests recently. The little Tigerette majorettes will perform nearby.

Children's puppet shows will be performed at intervals all day. To help focus the festival toward rural south heritage, several craftsmen will do on-hands demonstrations of their various skills. Tom and Pam Thompson of Paxton will be present with the age old white oak basket making crafts. Lyn Newsome of Enterprise and her spinning and weaving friends plan to set up and work all day for the public's enjoyment. Blacksmith, Billy Watson, Dothan, Alabama will bring his handcraft to the festival and Cynthia Buhr, Fort Walton Beach, Florida, will make hand made lace like it was done long before there were machines that could make it. The Pines Grove United Methodist Women will also share some of their many handcraft talents.

There will be plenty of food concessions, arts and crafts sales. Exhibitors are welcome. Spaces (10'x12') are $10. Call Samson City Hall at 898-7541 for more information.

Farm-City Week Planned In Coffee County

Efforts are underway to make the annual Farm-City Week observance this year one of the best ever held in Coffee County, scheduled for November 20 - 27.

Bill Faulk is serving as overall chairman again this year. He said that the committee had selected peanuts as the featured crop this year and that activities would center on spotlighting that farm crop to the people in this county and area.

Farm-City Week is designed to bring about a better understanding between rural and urban people and to increase the knowledge and appreciation of each for our way of life.

Specific details of the weeks activities will be released later. However, among those projects planned are such events as a farm animal traveling zoo; farm speakers at civic clubs; farm tours for special students; proclamations from governing bodies; agri-business banquet; young farmers banquet; and the possibility of video taping of events and especially as it relates to peanut production.

FAMILY TALK

Glenda M. Frazier
Human Resources

Consistency is the key to effective discipline. The greatest misbehavior is laid and the child must understand that misbehavior will not be rewarded. Temper tantrums are a bad example. Children are easier to "give in" to the temper tantrum rather than respond to it by refusing to reward for the misbehavior by agreeing to their demand. Consider the animal kingdom. The parent does not reward misbehavior by giving in, or over, they are correct the young ones. This is consistency. A noted psychologist said that children do not do what they don't work. When children learn that misbehavior does not work, the behavior changes.

Parents should set the example of discipline for their children through self-discipline of themselves. If you expect your children to pick up their clothes, then you must be polite, use "Please" and "Thank you" when talking with them and other people. Children learn from example.

Next week we will look at some effective ways of discipline. Thought: Children are natural mimics-they act like their parents in spite of every attempt to teach them good manners. - Anonymous Discipline comes from the word "disciple" which means a learner. The parent is the teacher and trainer and the child learns. Discipline is important because it is the key to the way your child will behave. The way discipline is handled in your family will shape the kind of adult your child will be. Discipline helps your child develop responsibility and self-discipline. Discipline is an act of love and patience while punishment is done at random and is hurtful.

Children need attention and will get your attention even if it means misbehaving. Often parents are "too busy" to bother with discipline. The good behavior of a child often goes unnoticed. This is often why children misbehave; it's the only way to get attention to themselves. Parents frequently remember the misbehavior. Consider taking the time for one week to just down the good behavior of your child. Reward the child with praise for the good behavior. This allows the child a feeling of self-worth and builds self-esteem. When children feel good about themselves, they are happier people. Giving praise encourages future good behavior. Apply this principle as you remember how much harder you try when someone praises you.

Miss Rogers

Miss Rogers To Wed Mr. Davis In December

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil R. Rogers Jr. of Elba announce the engagement of their daughter Virginia Lee to Robert Wesley Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald J. Davis Sr. of Albany, Ga.

The bride-elect is the granddaughter of Mrs. Virgil R. Rogers Sr. and the late Mr. Rogers of Orlando, Fla., and the late Mr. and Mrs. John Rushing Jr. of Elba.

Miss Rogers, a 1979 graduate of Carroll High School in Orlando, received a Bachelor of Industrial Engineering degree from the Georgia Institute of Technology in 1984. She is an associate engineer with the IBM corporation Federal Systems Division, Manassas, Va.

The future bridegroom is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Reagan Owen of Geneva, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Jonah B. Davis.

Mr. Davis, a 1979 graduate of Albany High School, received a Bachelor of Civil Engineering degree from the Georgia Institute of Technology in 1984. He is a project engineer with STS Consultants, Ltd., Merrifield, Va.

Bridal Luncheon Honors Miss Karen Grider

The lovely home of Mrs. W. L. Bozeman was the setting of a bridal luncheon honoring Miss Karen Leigh Grider, bride-elect of Mr. Brian Keith Snyder.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Bozeman and the honoree in the beautifully decorated courtyard and served white grape juice punch by Miss Carey Clark. Wicker wedding bells with white flowers interspersed with baby's breath and a white bow graced the courtyard gate. The steps were banked with potted plants and an antique white oak basket lavishly filled with fresh marigolds.

The guest were directed to the party tables in the dining room and on the patio where the centerpieces of lovely assorted fresh fall flowers added a festive touch to the party atmosphere. A delicious meal consisting of fruit compote appetizer, cheese strata, ham, sour cream muffins, dairy tarts filled with homemade jellies and fresh pear dessert was enjoyed by all.

The hostesses, Mrs. Bozeman, Mrs. Eugene DeVane, Mrs. Terry Calhoun, Mrs. Joe Clark, Mrs. Loyd White, Mrs. Mack Westbrook and Mrs. Jerome Baxley, presented Miss Grider with a lovely Christmas wreath.

Those enjoying the occasion with the honoree were: Mrs. George Grider, Mrs. Keith Snyder, Mrs. Pete Dorsey, Mrs. Ceina Hayes, Mrs. Ed Tucker, Mrs. Henry D. Clark, Mrs. Paul King, Mrs. Pat McFadden, Mrs. Marion Brunson and Mrs. Renita Cooper.

Miss Karen Grider Honored With Luncheon

Miss Karen Leigh Grider, bride-elect of Mr. Brian Snyder, was honored on October 25 with a brunch by Mrs. Robert Parker, Mrs. Bobby Baker, Mrs. James Maddox and Mrs. Van McCall, in the home of Mrs. Maddox on Highland Drive.

Upon arrival, guests were served juice by Misses Melissa Maddox and Britany McCall. After visiting, guests were seated and served a delicious brunch plate of cheese grits, sausage casserole, melon, kiwi fruit and cheese danish. After-dinner mints nestled in individual mini baskets tied with yellow gingham ribbons. The yellow gingham theme was carried out with matching napkins and center pieces of floating daisy mums adorned the party tables.

The hostesses presented Miss Grider with a lovely spice rack filled with a wide assortment of spices. Enjoying the party with Miss Grider were: Mrs. George Grider, Mrs. Keith Snyder, Mrs. Mike Carnley, Mrs. Kenneth Calhoun, Mrs. Lamar Brooks, Mrs. Ronnie White, Mrs. W.L. Bozeman, Mrs. Bill Cowart, Mrs. Merrill Shirley, Mrs. Bob Robinson and Mrs. Ann Tucker.

WALK BEFORE YOU TALK!
"Monday morning quarterbacking" - that's the term we use for those who sit around on Monday morning and say what should or should not have been done during the game of the preceding weekend.

There is also a saying that goes like this: "Hindsight is better than foresight!"

How true it is! If you had been the coach on the field when the pressures were mounting and the clock was ticking away, your decision may not have come as easily as it did sitting at home in your easy chair feeling no pressure.

How about the TV game show? Sometimes it may seem easy for you to answer the questions asked. But if you were there in the studio if the pressure of winning was on you; if you were before the cameras, and if you knew you were being watched by millions of viewers, the answers may not have come so easily!

The same situation applies to your spiritual life. Many people like to condemn their fellowmen for his actions, yet they do not really know what made him or her act or react the way they did. You see, if you were in their shoes, if you were under the same pressures they are facing, and if you had the same home situation they have, you might understand their actions a little better."

In Job Chapter 16 and verses 4 and 5 we hear Job speaking out to those who have been troublesome to him during his time of trial and testing. He says, "But perhaps I'd sermonize the same as you - if you were I and I were you, I would spout off my criticisms against you and shake my head at you. But not I would speak in such a way that it would help you. I would try to take away your grief. (Paraphrased)"

Friday, the next time someone acts or reacts in a manner you do not think is right, or someone speaks short to you - pray for them and be kind to them. You see, you may not know the pressures that individual is facing and you may not realize all the facts about their situation.

In other words, if you have not walked in their situation, do not talk about their action or reaction. Simply remember this little phrase: "Walk before you talk."

ANSWERS TO YOUR
BIBLE QUESTIONS
Question:
What is the purpose of baptism?

BOB PRICHARD

In our religious world, there is perhaps no subject more disputed than baptism. Many churches make baptism a requirement for admission to that church, while at the same time saying that baptism is unimportant. Note what the scriptures say concerning the purposes of baptism.

Jesus told 12 disciples, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." (Mark 16:15-16).

Jesus stated that the purpose of baptism is to save the believer. After Peter and the apostles preached to the multitudes on the day of Pentecost, "They were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Then Peter said unto them, 'Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost' (Acts 2:26-38). Peter's response to the multitude was to repent and be baptized 'for the remission of sins.' Baptism brings 'remission of sins,' the forgiveness of sins. Ananias was commissioned by God to go to the repentant Saul of Tarsus. He said to Saul, 'And now why tarriest thou? arise and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord' (Acts 22:16). Saul was told to be baptized to wash away his sins.

Paul wrote in Gal. 3:26-27, 'For ye are all the children of God by faith in Jesus Christ. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.' He reminded the Galatian Christians that in their baptism they had put on Christ. This passage, and Rom. 6:3-4 are the only passages in the Bible which tell how to get into Christ. Paul wrote in Rom. 6:3-4, 'Know ye not that so many of us who were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.' These passages show that by being baptized into Christ, one puts on Christ.

Peter, comparing baptism to Noah's ark, said, 'The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ.' (1 Peter 3:21). Peter said it. Baptism saves us.

Is baptism important? Baptism saves the believer, brings the remission of sins, washes away sins, puts one into Christ, and saves. It is not merely a church ordinance. It is an essential part of God's plan of redemption.

BOB PRICHARD

In our religious world, there is perhaps no subject more disputed than baptism. Many churches make baptism a requirement for admission to that church, while at the same time saying that baptism is unimportant. Note what the scriptures say concerning the purposes of baptism.

Jesus told 12 disciples, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." (Mark 16:15-16).

Jesus stated that the purpose of baptism is to save the believer. After Peter and the apostles preached to the multitudes on the day of Pentecost, "They were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Then Peter said unto them, 'Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost' (Acts 2:26-38). Peter's response to the multitude was to repent and be baptized 'for the remission of sins.' Baptism brings 'remission of sins,' the forgiveness of sins. Ananias was commissioned by God to go to the repentant Saul of Tarsus. He said to Saul, 'And now why tarriest thou? arise and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord' (Acts 22:16). Saul was told to be baptized to wash away his sins.

Paul wrote in Gal. 3:26-27, 'For ye are all the children of God by faith in Jesus Christ. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.' He reminded the Galatian Christians that in their baptism they had put on Christ. This passage, and Rom. 6:3-4 are the only passages in the Bible which tell how to get into Christ. Paul wrote in Rom. 6:3-4, 'Know ye not that so many of us who were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.' These passages show that by being baptized into Christ, one puts on Christ.

Peter, comparing baptism to Noah's ark, said, 'The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ.' (1 Peter 3:21). Peter said it. Baptism saves us.

Is baptism important? Baptism saves the believer, brings the remission of sins, washes away sins, puts one into Christ, and saves. It is not merely a church ordinance. It is an essential part of God's plan of redemption.

celebrates Birthday

In Gadsden

Leigh Bryan, daughter of Eddie and Judy Bryan of Gadsden celebrated her 11th birthday Oct. 7 at the Pizzeria Hut in Gadsden with several friends and her brother Bob.

She also celebrated her birthday in Elba on Oct. 4 with her grandparents, Ed and Lorene Bryan.

Friends, aunts and uncles in Elba came by to wish Leigh a happy birthday, and enjoyed refreshments of cake and punch.

She received many nice gifts on both occasions.

Judge Gary McAliley Speaks To

Mrs. Bryan's Business Law Class

By Sharon Pope and Cheryl Faison

Because the average citizen does not have an in-depth knowledge of how our court system works, Mrs. Bryan's Business Law Class has been studying law enforcement and the court system. The study was reinforced by a visit from District Judge Gary McAliley who discussed the court system. One is that 99 percent of all cases are tried with a jury, and another is that the average county gets eight weeks of criminal jury trials, and only two cases can be tried in a week; therefore only 16 cases can be tried by a jury in the course of a year.

Students were given the opportunity to ask Judge McAliley questions. The law students were concerned with when a law enforcement officer may stop and search a vehicle, and to what extent may be legally searched.

Judge McAliley was also asked his opinion about juveniles on death row. He said that if a juvenile between the ages of 14 and 16 can be proved to have a criminal mind and perform a crime that he knows is wrong, he should be put to death.

He went on to explain the two types of crimes - felonies and misdemeanors. Felonies are crimes punishable by more than one year, and misdemeanors are lesser crimes, and are punishable by serving time in a county or city jail.

Judge McAliley also discussed the disadvantages of the court system. One is that 99 percent of all cases are tried with a jury, and another is that the average county gets eight weeks of criminal jury trials, and only two cases can be tried in a week; therefore only 16 cases can be tried by a jury in the course of a year.

Students were given the opportunity to ask Judge McAliley questions. The law students were concerned with when a law enforcement officer may stop and search a vehicle, and to what extent may be legally searched.

He went on to explain the two

HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL IS HELD

By Brian McLeod

The 1986 Halloween Carnival was held Tuesday, Oct. 28, in the elementary building. Each class was responsible for a booth, and two parents from each class were to choose a booth and furnish the goods for it. Among the concessions were the cake walk, clown photo center, lollipop tree, "go fish," balloon sale, poster draw and grab bags. For those not participating in the events at the elementary school, there were a Monster Bash and a dance for students, held by two high school teachers. There was also food in the lunchroom to be purchased, such as hamburgers, hot dogs, chili-with-rice dinner, cake and refreshments. There was no admission fee for the carnival. If you wanted to participate in an event you had to purchase tickets for 25c each.

SENIOR NIGHT AT TSU

By Brian McLeod

Several members of Zion Chapel's senior class got the opportunity for a taste of college life recently at Troy State University's Senior Night. The Trojan Ambassadors served as hosts for the evening's activities, which began at 4 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 25. The seniors were treated to supper at the Adams Center and taken for a tour of the TSU campus. After the tour everyone attended a pep rally led by the TSU cheerleaders. Following the pep rally the seniors went to the Troy State vs. Delta State football game where admission was free. Purpose of the senior night was to give high school seniors the opportunity to visit the Troy State campus and ask any questions they might have. They also had the opportunity to meet seniors from other schools.

NATIONAL ABSTINENCE POSTER CONTEST

By Shelia Rugg

For the past seven years, Preferred Risk has sponsored a National Abstinence Essay Contest for high school students. This year the contest was the eighth national contest, but posters rather than essays will be the medium through which students can express their thoughts and ideas about abstinence, and how it is beneficial as it relates to driving safely.

Abstinence is the voluntary and complete non-use of all forms of alcoholic beverages. While preparing a poster for the contest, participants should consider what abstinence is, why people decide to be non-drinkers, and the value and benefits of not drinking, as well as why people drink. They should also think about their own attitudes toward the practice of not drinking, and the people, influences and experiences that have affected their attitudes and practices.

Any student who is regularly enrolled in and attending a public, private or church-related school and in grades 8-12 during the 1986-87 school year is eligible to enter the contest. The poster entered in the contest is to be the work of the student submitting it and on white 8 1/2 x 11 or 11 x 17 paper. The entry should include a complete official entry form, signed by a Preferred Risk policyholder; a poster; and a complete original 2-page summary of the poster, and mailed to: Abstinence Poster Contest, Preferred Risk Insurance Company, 111 Ashworth Road, West Des Moines, Iowa 50265-3538. Posters will be judged 50 percent for originality and consistency of ideas, 30 percent for style and effectiveness of presentation and 20 percent for neatness and appearance. Awards for winning posters will be: first place - $1000; second place - $750; third - $500; fourth - $250; ten honorable mention - $100 each. Deadline to enter is March 1, 1987, with all entries to be postmarked no later than midnight on that day.

BAND RAINED OUT

By Camille Marler

The Zion Chapel Rebel Band had planned to march in the National Peanut Festival Parade on Oct. 25, but could not because of the rain. The rain began as band members unloaded the buses in Dothan to warm up. David Seaton, band director, decided it would be best if the band didn't march because of the damage the rain would do to the woodwind instruments. These include the clarinets, saxophones and flutes. When these instruments get wet, the keys under the keys come off, making it impossible to play. It is very expensive to replace them. Mr. Seaton said it would have cost approximately $500 to repair the instruments had the band marched.

FBLA MEETS

By Lisa Dwyer

On Oct. 22, Zion Chapel's Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) met to discuss old and new business for the month. To begin the meeting, Rachel Bryan explained the upcoming visit of the New Brocton FBLA to Zion Chapel's chapter. Following the briefing, the meeting was turned over to the president, Brenda Mobley, who opened the floor for nominations of three officers. These were reporter, historian and parliamentarian. The other officers were kept from last year's chapter. The 1986-87 officers are: Brenda Mobley, president; Sharon Pope, vice president; Jackie Parrish - secretary; Cheryl Faison - treasurer; Diane Parker - reporter; Shelia Rugg - historian; and Brian McLeod - parliamentarian.

NEW YORK METS FAVORED IN ZC STUDENT POLL

By Pete Bryan

The New York Mets, who won the 1986 World Series four games to three over the Boston Red Sox, were highly favored by the students at Zion Chapel. A poll was taken recently to determine which team was liked best, with students chosen at random and asked to make their preference. A total of 100 students were questioned; 67 were for the Mets, 22 for the Red Sox and 11 weren't really interested. The random sample was predominantly boys; ten of the 11 not interested were girls. No teachers were included in the poll.

True Love

"He died to save others," was written on the war hero's tombstone. The story is told of a fierce battle during World War II. Both sides were suffering great casualties. Inside one foxhole, a radio operator and his superior were desperately trying to radio allied forces for help. Bombs were exploding and shrapnel was flying all around them. Just as the radio operator made contact with a nearby company of soldiers, an enemy hand grenade landed in their foxhole. Out of nowhere came a soldier who threw his body over the grenade. As a result of this soldier sacrificing his own life, the radio operator was able to call for reinforcements and the allies won the battle. Many stories tell of people who throughout history have sacrificed their lives so others might live. But only through the planned death of one man, Jesus, is it possible for everyone to have everlasting life.

"God commendeth his love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." (Rom. 5:8) God loved us before we ever decided to believe in Him and serve Him. We were uncaring and undeserving of God's love when He sent His only Son to die for our sins. Just as God loved us while we were sinners, Christ died for us. We were uncaring and undeserving of God's love when He sent His only Son to die for our sins. Just as God loved us while we were sinners, Christ died for us. We were uncaring and undeserving of God's love when He sent His only Son to die for our sins.

Students Go To Birmingham To Hear President

On Tuesday, October 28, 1986, forty-one Elba High School students traveled to Birmingham to see and hear the President of the United States.

States speak on behalf of the Republican party at their political rally. We pulled out of the high school parking lot at 7:05 a.m. We had a long day ahead of us, but we knew that it was a day in which we would long remember. We reached Birmingham at 10:15 a.m. Everyone was excited to see all of the President's secret servicemen run around on top of buildings making sure everything was okay for the President's arrival.

There were several other high schools that attended, but none were from so far away, especially from South Alabama. We indeed felt privileged. The Elba students were all nicely attired in their coats and ties and dresses. We were definitely the best dressed high school there.

We sat in the stands for 2 hours awaiting the arrival of the President. Everyone was given a small American flag to wave during the ceremony. Several bands played while the rest of the crowd cheered and sang. Finally at 1:15 p.m., the speaker announced the important guests: Senator Jeremiah Denton, Mayor Emory Folmar, Mr. Guy Hunt and at last, the President of the United States, Mr. Ronald Reagan. The bands played, 2 huge American flags were dropped from the ceiling and the crowd was yelling at the top of their lungs.

Instead of talking on the deficit and tax reforms, President Reagan told jokes about the Democratic Party and also delivered a message to the young people. The message was one of great importance. "Free your mind, free your family, free your community and free yourselves. Just say 'NO!'"

At the close of his speech, he asked for Republican party support and said thanks to everyone. Then the band began to play once again and several hundred balloons were dropped from the sky, down on the on-lookers below.

We left the coliseum at 2:10. We boarded the bus and headed for Red Mountain to see the Vulcan statue. It was very exciting for those of us who had only seen it from a distance.

We then went to Morrison's Cafeteria for dinner. And believe me, everyone certainly enjoyed their food. After all, we hadn't eaten since early Tuesday morning. After we ate, we went to the Riverchase Galleria for our final stop before heading home. Can you believe this mall even has a hotel in it? It's unbelievable how large this thing is. Anyway, none of us got lost in it!

The ride home was long, but the students made up for it by singing songs and cutting up. Mr. King thought that we would be sleepy. Boy was he wrong!

Before getting off the bus, Mr. King thanked us for being such great students and for being so mature. But what meant the most to all of us was Mr. King telling us that no matter what anyone says, this Senior Class is the best! Excuse the modesty if you will, but we also think that we're the best!

We would like to express our thanks to SouthTrust Bank and others for providing us with the Trailways bus transportation. Hobco Marine, Enterprise Marine, and Pinckard-Sharpless Insurance Agency for the money to supplement our meals, to Mrs. Charlotte Hobson for getting the tickets and going with us and finally, to Mr. King, Mrs. Carolyn Kelley, Mrs. Pat Clark and Mrs. Ellen Lowery, our chaperones for putting us with our singing and cutting up!

JOHNNY HOLLEY is the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Holley. He is a sophomore varsity cheerleader for the EHS Tigers. She is a member of Mu Alpha Theta, E Club and the Elba Zion Baptist Church. This is Anna's first year on the varsity squad and she is doing an excellent job. Keep up the good work and Good Luck Anna!

MICHELLE THIGPEN is the fifteen year old daughter of Mrs. Alice Thigpen. She is a sophomore varsity cheerleader. She is a member of Mu Alpha Theta, E Club and the Elba Zion Baptist Church. This is Michelle's first year also, as a varsity cheerleader and she is doing a tremendous job. Keep up the good work and Good Luck Michelle!

MATT HENDERSON is the fifteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Henderson. He is a sophomore split end for the Tigers. He is a member of the Beta Club, E Club, Mu Alpha Theta, FFA and the Westside Baptist Church. Matt has grown a lot over the past year, so we are hoping to see a lot of #22 within the next couple of years. Good Luck Matt!

DERRICK STINSON is the fifteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stinson. He is a sophomore flanker for the Elba Tigers. He is a member of the E Club, Beta Club, Mu Alpha Theta and the First Baptist Church of Elba. This is Derrick's first year also, but likewise, we are hoping to see a lot of him within the next couple of years. Good Luck #8!

BRETT BRYAN is the fifteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bryan. He is a sophomore offensive tackle on the '86 Tiger team. He is a member of the E Club, Beta Club, Mu Alpha Theta and the Mt. Olive Baptist Church. This is Brett's first year on the Tiger team, but we are expecting to see a lot of #65 these next couple of years. Good luck, Brett!

The high school sports scene may be slowing down in some places now that the football regular season is over; however, a quick glance at the calendar on my desk revealed a very busy month ahead as Elba, New Brockton and Brantley are all headed for the playoffs, and Kingston and Zion Chapel are only a couple of weeks away from their basketball openers. Sounds like fun . . . doesn't it!

ELBA TIGERS CONTINUE WINNING STREAK

The Elba Tigers made it five-wins-in-a-row last Friday night with their big Area championship victory over Daleville, and the Tigers appear to be peaking at just the right time! Coach Wood said early in the season that it could take this year's team a couple of weeks to develop into a good team and it looks like Wood's prognosis was right on target, because after a very slow start the Tigers are on a roll!

Elba's Coach Wood Expects Tough Test In Playoff Opener

The Elba Tigers and Luverne Tigers ended the regular season headed in opposite directions; however, the Luverne Tigers would rather play Elba than anybody on their schedule and Elba's Coach Mack Wood knows his Tigers will be in for a battle Friday night when they host Luverne in the opening round of the Class 3A football playoffs.

Four Defending Champs In State Playoff Field

Four defending champions - Colbert County, Alexandria, Hazlewood and Sand Rock - are in the 192-state field kicking off the 1986 state prep football playoff this week, according to first-round pairings announced by the Alabama High School Athletic Association.

Colbert County returns to defend its Class 5A title, Alexandria is back in Class 4A, Hazlewood returns in Class 2A and Sand Rock goes after another Class A crown. The 1985 champions failing to qualify for a state playoff berth are Northview in Class 6A and Gordo in Class 3A.

This marks the third year of the playoff under the six-class format. The traditional four-class system was used during the first 18 years of the AHSA state championship playoff.

The 16 area champions and runners-up in each of the six classes will be paired in a 32-team bracket for the five rounds of competition. Area winners will host runners-up from adjoining areas in the first round Nov. 7. Second-round games are scheduled Nov. 14, the quarter-finals Nov. 21, semi-finals Nov. 28 and finals Dec. 5.

FIRST ROUND PAIRINGS
All games Friday, Nov. 7, at 7:30 p.m., unless indicated otherwise.

The Elba offense moved almost at will against the powerful Daleville defense last week and for the sixth straight week showed an ability to run at its opponent. The running game accounted for over 200 yards in the first two quarters, as Richard McKinnon, Robert Wilson and Stan Sauls all took turns attacking the Warhawk front wall. McKinnon ate up huge yards of real estate up the middle, while Wilson went outside and Sauls kept the ball on the option to totally befuddle Daleville's defensive game plan. The running game was running on all cylinders Friday night and the result was awesome! Even the best of backs can't run without blocking and the success of the Elba running attack is directly attributed to the fine job the line has done. The line had some problems early, as did the entire team, but a couple of changes were made, and since the fifth game the line has improved each and every game. The offense is a family affair and in recent weeks the players have been holding a lot of reunions in the end zone!

The Tiger defense gave up some yardage passing, but was in complete control throughout the game and continued to be impressive. The Tiger front wall slowed down the speedy Daleville backs up the middle and around the ends, and the linebackers mopped up whenever the backs came their way. The defense has been the key to the success of the Tigers in the winning streak, and it looks like the defense is having fun playing. Nothing is more fun than winning and the defense appears ready to enjoy football for many weeks to come!

I'll admit that Clayton and Louisville appeared on the schedule at just the right time for the Tigers to get a much needed shot of confidence, but the last three wins over Troy, Andalusia and Daleville were all over solid teams, and the Tigers have earned their shot at the playoffs. Keep it going Tigers - the they'll be fired up when they get here Friday night and it will be your typical Elba-Luverne ball game. "Offensively, Luverne still runs the lead option and counter-option that hurt us early in the season," said Coach Wood, "and they like to run mis-direction. We'll have to play hard on every play and be consistent and come up with some big plays to keep them from controlling the ball.

"Luverne has in the past kept the ball away from us, and our defense must be able to line up and stop 'em at the line of scrimmage. The Luverne defense still plays like it did, but in recent weeks their opponents have done a good job getting ready. I look for Coach Daniel to make some changes defensively to keep us off balance. Our offense will have to be consistent, pick up the changes in what Luverne may do and block much better than it did in the first meeting. We'll have to be fundamentally sound and not turn the ball over. Our offense must be productive and put points on the board every time it gets close!"

This is Elba against Luverne, and that always means tough, hard-hitting ball games. We just hope this time we'll have the momentum going our way and play a solid game."

When asked about last week's win over Daleville, Coach Wood stated, "Daleville has got a good football team and I think we played a good game to beat them. In the first half our offense played real well and was able to establish its basic attack and we loosened the defense up with a couple of passes."

The defense played good - not great - but certainly good enough to win. We contained their big plays for most of the night, and when we did get burned at times I felt it was at least partially due to Daleville's tremendous speed. We know we will have to play better than we did against Daleville to win in the playoffs and we'll use the win as a stepping stone for the weeks ahead. We were definitely happy to win the Area!"

Elba To Put Winning Streak On The Line

The Elba Tigers will put a five-game winning streak and their hopes of a state football championship on the line Friday night when they host the Luverne Tigers in the opening round of the Class 3A high school football playoffs.

Elba will carry a 6-4 record into the matchup and has come on strong late in the season after getting off to a slow 1-4 start. The Tigers opened the season with a big 14-0 win over 6A Carroll of Ozark; however, the offense went suddenly quiet as the Tigers lost to Geneva 17-6; Luverne 14-0 and Opp 16-0. A 21-20 loss to Pike County left Elba with a 1-4 record, but the offense finally showed signs of life.

The Tigers won their last four games to close out the regular season brought the Tigers' record to 6-4 and gave all Tiger hopefuls high expectations about the playoffs. Those expectations carry over the team, and everyone in Tigertown is excited as they prepare for the invasion from Gretnahaw County!

Luverne opened the season with an upset loss to 1A power Dozier 14-6, but rebounded to defeat Florala 54-0, Elba 14-0, Georgiana 26-21, Brantley 12-0, Highland Home 14-3 and Evergreen 19-13 to up its record to 6-1 and move into the top 10 in the state!

A devastating 34-13 loss to Daleville seemed to dampen the Tigers' hopes and in the closing weeks the losing string continued as W.S. Neal edged Luverne 20-7 for the Area 3 title, and Goshen strung the Tigers 28-6 to give them a final regular season record of 6-4.

The two rivals ended the regular season headed in opposite directions, but when these two get together the records don't mean a thing, and the only thing for sure is that the playoff game Friday night will be a battle!

best is yet to come!

ELBA FANS NEED TO RALLY AROUND RESURGENT TIGERS

The Elba Tigers posted an undefeated regular season record two years ago and last year won the hearts of the town by winning four playoff games and making it all the way to the state finals. The fans were still fired up early this season and packed the stadium for the opener against Ozark; however, the team struggled for the next four weeks and it looks like the so-called Tiger fans of years past are gone for good. When the fans didn't fill the stands at Louisville I said it was because everybody was afraid they'd have to stand up, then for the last two weeks I tried to tell myself that the weather kept a lot of folks at home. The time has come to admit however that a lot of Elba fans gave up on the Tigers when their record slipped to 1-4, and those same fans still aren't convinced that the Tigers' winning streak is because of the team's fine play. Well, it's a little embarrassing to see a lot of empty seats at home, and it's got to be disappointing for the players when they run out prior to the game and see one side of the stadium almost empty. I've got nothing to say to those of you who have given up on these fine young men, but I do have something to say to the real Elba fans - we have to cheer louder than ever and really show our support to let the players know we believe in them and support them all the way!

SEASON COMES TO END FOR ALL BUT ONE COUNTY SCHOOL

The final regular season game came for two of the county schools last week, but the other rolled to its ninth straight win and has a real shot at going a long way in the playoffs. Here's a look at week No. 10:

New Brockton rolled past Zion Chapel 35-0 for its ninth straight win and it looks like the Gamecocks are a legitimate 2A contender! New Brockton was expected to be in a rebuilding year, but have scored points in bunches throughout the season and developed into a true small school power. Don't be surprised if the Gamecocks win several games against teams that will be heavily favored. These guys believe in themselves and in my opinion are a darkhorse to take it all.

Zion Chapel battled New Brockton tooth-and-nail for two quarters, but gave out of gas against the powerful Gamecocks, and finished the season with a 3-7 record. Zion Chapel didn't set any records for wins; however, the Rebels won the admiration of all who watched them play because of the team's pride and dedication. They proved you can't always judge a team simply by its record, and the Rebels will go down in my book as winners!

Kinston lost its season finale to Brantley to finish with a disappointing 1-9 record, but don't feel sorry for the Bulldogs. Kinston had a big, but very young team this season, and the size of a couple of players gave everyone a false sense of what to expect. The Bulldog players didn't enjoy the season very much, but won't forget it either and next year will come out hungry to pay folks back!

HIGH SCHOOL PLAYOFFS ARE IMPROVED, BUT STILL HAVE FAULTS

The Alabama high school football playoffs were expanded two years ago to let area runners-up compete, and while the expanded field did add to the excitement, it also allowed some teams with poor records to sneak into the playoff program. I have nothing against any teams in the playoffs, but when teams like Mt. Brook (3-7), Albertville (4-6), Butler (4-6), Jones Valley (2-8), Gadsden (4-5), Hayneville (4-5), Fultondale (3-6), Corner (3-7), Cherokee County (4-5), Paramount (4-6), Vincent (4-6), Cordova (4-6), Ashville (4-6), Cherokee Vocational (3-7), Goodwater (2-8), Francis Marion (1-9), Coffeewille (3-6), McKenzie (2-8), Thorsby (3-6) and Vina (2-8) make it to the playoffs it can only take away a little of the excitement from the teams who worked hard and posted outstanding records.

I don't have a sure-fire solution and can't totally object to runners-up making the field after all. Elba was a runner-up last year, but I do think a committee should be formed to study the playoffs in depth and develop a new setup. It won't be without its faults, but at least it'll be new!

POLISH PROGNOSTICATOR PICKS PLAYOFFS

Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator closed out another fine season of predicting last week and will now venture into the playoffs confident of even better things to come. Here goes . . .

ELBA VS. LUVERNE

The Elba Tigers lost to Luverne earlier in the season and while I'm sure the players want to pay back the red-clad Tigers, just wishing won't get it done. Luverne is just as good as it was back in week #3, and Elba will have to play well to win. I think they'll do just that!!!

Elba 26 - Luverne 13

NEW BROCKTON VS. GOODWATER

The Gamecocks will open the playoffs at home as area champs and will be ready to show the visiting Yellowjackets how football is played in south Alabama. A sting from a Yellowjacket is painful; however, in this game the pain won't last long - at least not on the Brockton sideline!

Elba Tigers Rip Daleville 35-17 To Claim Area 4 Crown

The Elba Tigers claimed the Class 3A, Area 4 football championship last Friday night as they defeated the Daleville Warhawks 35-17 in front of an enthusiastic crowd at Elba's Miller Memorial Stadium.

The win was Elba's fifth straight and gave the Tigers a 6-4 regular season record, while Daleville slipped to 6-4 with the loss.

Elba received the opening kick and showed everyone it was ready to play as Jason Johnson returned the kickoff 34 yards to put the Tigers in business at the Elba 44-yardline. The team struggled for the next four weeks and it looks like the so-called Tiger fans of years past are gone for good. When the fans didn't fill the stands at Louisville I said it was because everybody was afraid they'd have to stand up, then for the last two weeks I tried to tell myself that the weather kept a lot of folks at home. The time has come to admit however that a lot of Elba fans gave up on the Tigers when their record slipped to 1-4, and those same fans still aren't convinced that the Tigers' winning streak is because of the team's fine play. Well, it's a little embarrassing to see a lot of empty seats at home, and it's got to be disappointing for the players when they run out prior to the game and see one side of the stadium almost empty. I've got nothing to say to those of you who have given up on these fine young men, but I do have something to say to the real Elba fans - we have to cheer louder than ever and really show our support to let the players know we believe in them and support them all the way!

Daleville came out passing on its initial possession and converted a big play when Scott Autrey hit J.J. Walker with a 49-yard pass; however, the speedy Warhawk fumbled the ball after being hit at the Elba 18, and the Tigers' Jason Hodge recovered to kill the threat.

Elba got the ball back at its 20-yardline late in the first quarter on a Daleville punt and promptly broke a 7-play, 80-yard drive that was climaxed by a Tiger touchdown!

Richard McKinnon gained 23 yards on two carries during the drive, while Robert Wilson added 32 yards on two carries and Stan Sauls gained 25 yards and got the scare off an 18-yard scamper. Fleming added the extra point, and with 11:33 left in the second quarter the Tigers owned a surprising 14-0 lead.

The Warhawks began a drive of their own on the ensuing series and drove all the way to the Elba 13-yardline only to be stopped by the Tiger defense. The drive was keyed by the running of William Molland and Ricky Lucky, while a big play in the march was a 32-yard pass from Autrey to Walker.

Daleville elected to go with a field goal and the Tigers' defense stalled and Rusty Duale drilled the 30-yard attempt to cut the Elba lead to 14-5 with 6:52 left in the half.

A 26-yard return by Johnson on the ensuing kick gave the Tigers excellent field position and the Tiger defense needed only 4 plays to cover the 56 yards to paydirt!

A 15-yard run by McKinnon and two runs by Wilson for a total of 26 yards got the drive off to a quick start, while quarterback Stan Sauls scored the touchdown on a 20-yard run. Christian Fleming added the extra point and with 5:50 still left in the half Elba had upped its lead to 21-3.

The Tigers got the ball back with 3:16 left in the half on a Daleville punt and continued to move at will as the Tiger offense marched 56 yards on 8 plays to get the drive off to a quick start, while a 13-yard pass from Sauls to Matt Henderson and an 11-yard run by Sauls moved the ball near the Daleville goal.

Robert Wilson got the touchdown on a 1-yard drive and Fleming added the extra point to put the Tigers on top 28-3 with 1:13 left in the half.

Elba drove to the Daleville 31-yardline on its initial possession of the second half and appeared to be headed for the end zone; however, the drive bogged down, and on fourth down at the 38, Christian Fleming was called on to punt. Fleming's punt was high and long, and the Daleville return man couldn't find the handle on the ball and fumbled it, with Elba's Brian Free recovering the fumble and piking at the Warhawk 4-yardline.

Richard McKinnon scored the touchdown on a 2-yard ball three plays later, and following Fleming's extra point the Tigers owned a commanding 35-3 lead with 3:29 left in the third quarter!

Daleville got a break early in the final stanza when a Sauls pass was intercepted at the Elba 13-yardline and the Warhawks cashed in on the break as William Molland scored on the Hawks seventh play following the interception on a 2-yard run.

Duale added the p.a.t., pulling the Warhawks within 35-10 with 7:13 left in the game.

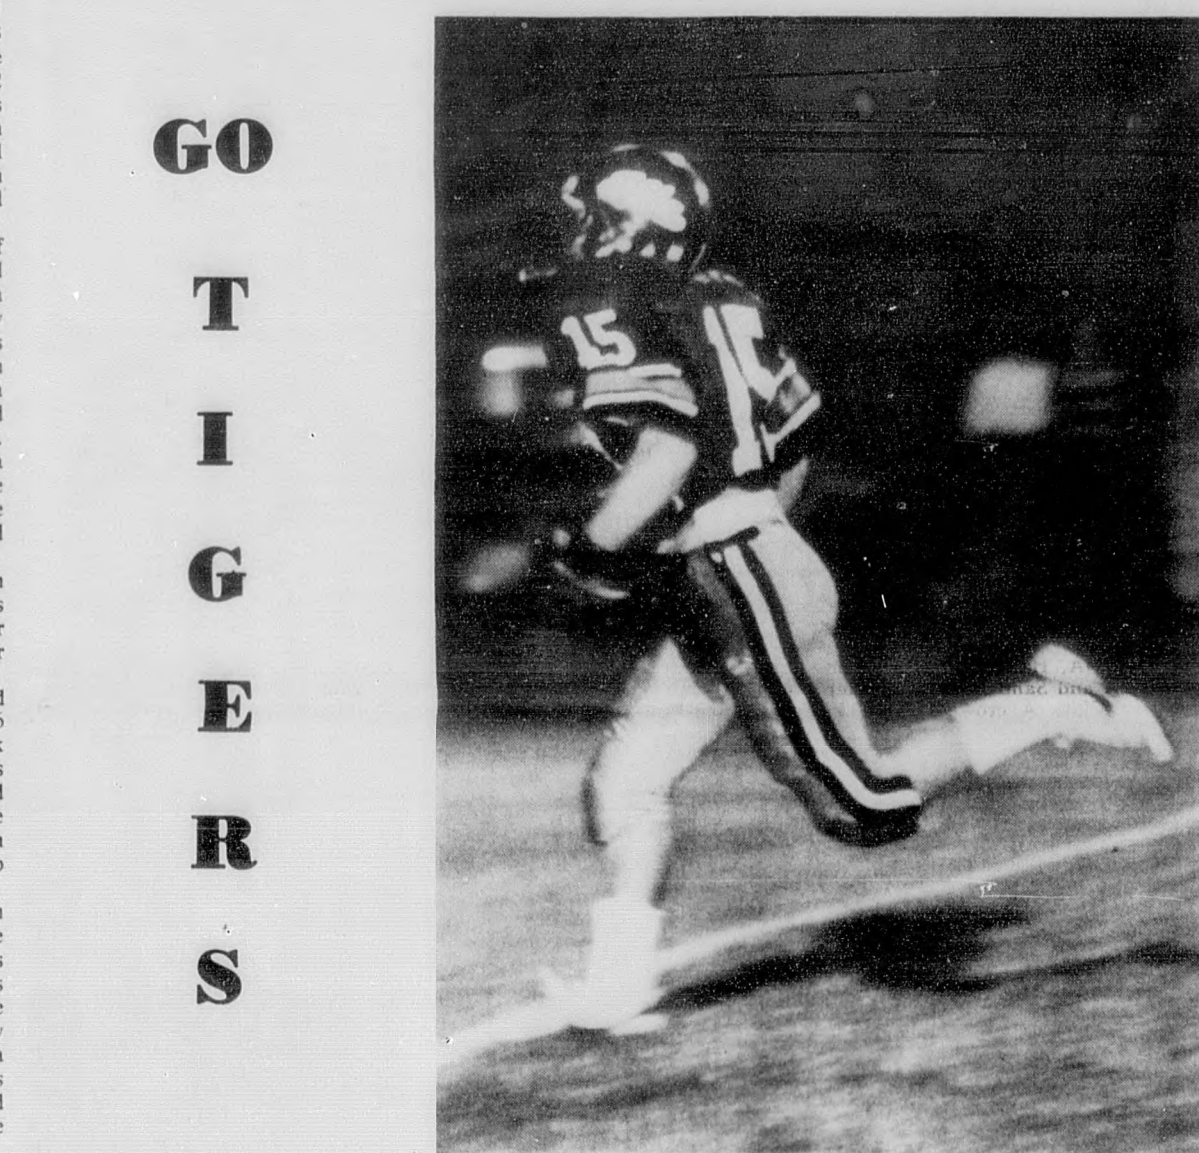

Elba fumbled a Daleville punt with 3:10 left in the game to put the Warhawks in business at the Tiger 36-yardline, and the Hawks again cashed in on the fumble to put a touchdown on the board. J.J. Walker got the touchdown on a 14-yard run with only 20 left on the clock. Duale added the p.a.t., making the final score - Elba 35 - Daleville 17.

Richard McKinnon gained 127 yards on 14 carries to pace the Elba running attack, while Robert Wilson added 71 yards on 11 carries, with all the yardage coming in the first half. Stan Sauls gained a season high 51 yards on 7 carries and scored 2 touchdowns for the Tigers. William Molland gained 55 yards on 11 carries to lead Daleville.

Jason Hodge made 7 tackles, assisted on 3 and recovered a fumble to spark the Tiger defense, while Scott Brown made 7 tackles and 2 assists and Mickey Dunnivant made 7 tackles and 1 assist. Warren Gallimore added 5 tackles and 2 assists for Elba.

Brantley Dumps Kinston 27-6

Brantley's Steve Barrow (27) cuts upfield in last week's 27-6 homecoming win over Kinston. The win gave Brantley the runner-up spot in Class A, Area 4.

By: Greg Brunson
& Billy Wayne Williamson

The Brantley Bulldogs raced out to a 21-0 halftime lead Friday night, then held on for a 27-6 victory over the Kinston Bulldogs. The Brantley defense dominated the line of scrimmage to help the Bulldogs claim the Area runner-up spot for the upcoming state playoffs.

Brantley wasted little time getting on the scoreboard as they drove 64 yards in only 3 plays. The touchdown came as Doug Salter took the handoff on a misdirection play and rambled 50 yards up the right sideline. Salter added the point after to give the Bulldogs a 7-0 lead with only 1:42 gone in the game.

An exchange of punts gave Brantley their next scoring opportunity as they put the ball in play from the Kinston 26-yardline. It took 9 plays to get into the endzone with Brad Kimbro diving in from one yard out for the touchdown. Salter added his second extra point to stretch the Brantley lead to 14-0 with 11:24 to play in the half.

The next Brantley score came on a 36-yard pass play from Salter to Matthew Barnes. This option pass capped a 60-yard drive that took only 4 plays. Salter again booted the extra point, and with 7:17 left in the second quarter, Brantley led 21-0.

Shawn Wilcox intercepted a Todd Hawthorne pass late in the half to stop a Kinston threat and preserve the 21-0 lead.

The second half opened with the two teams exchanging punts and then exchanging fumbles. Carlton Edwards made a recovery of a Brantley fumble at the Brantley 42-yardline. Kinston moved to a first down at the 29, only to turn the ball back over as Richie Powell recovered a Brantley fumble.

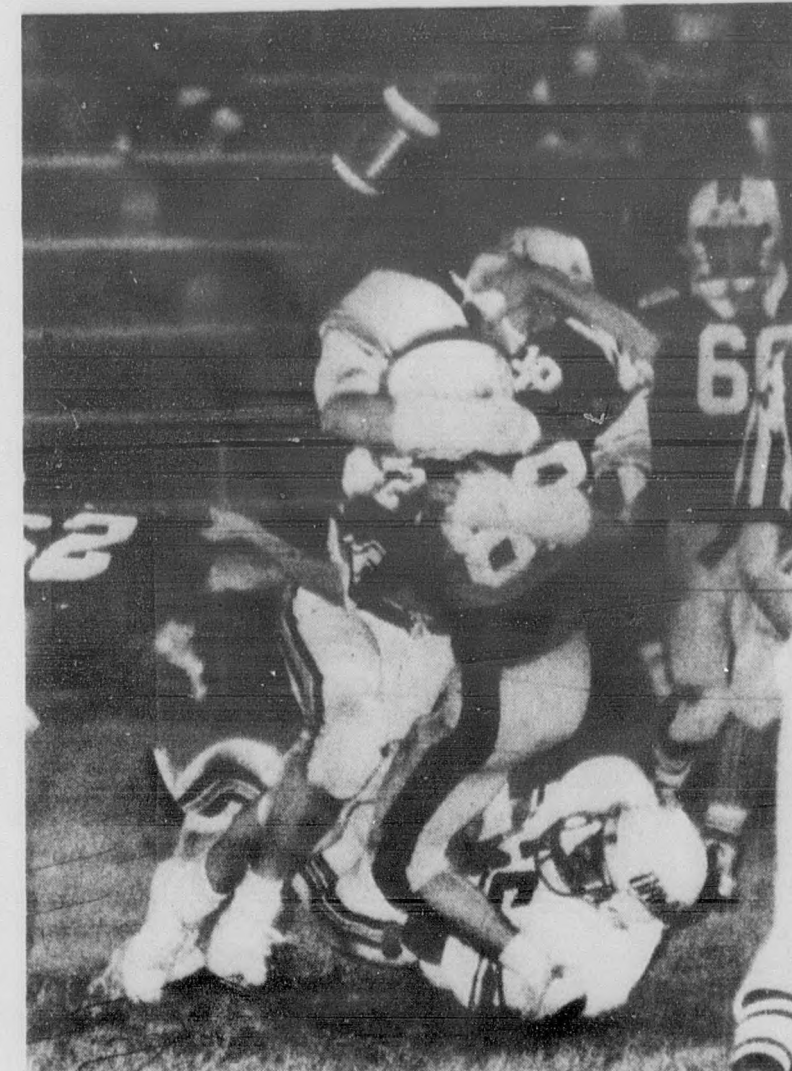

Brantley got another break as Giles Bryan recovered a fumbled punt at the Kinston 9-yardline. Three plays later Brad Kimbro cracked in from 3 yards out for his second score of the game. The conversion failed, leaving the score at 27-0 with 8:25 to play in the game.

Late in the game Travis Carnley took a handoff from Todd Hawthorne and rolled to the right. Carnley fired the ball deep downfield where it was tipped by a defensive player, juggled by Tim Beavers, the intended receiver, and finally caught. Beavers raced into the end zone to complete this 73-yard scoring play. The extra point was not good so the score stood 27-6 with 3:10 remaining.

Brantley took the kickoff and ran out the rest of the time with their reserves.

Doug Salter was the game's leading rusher with 75 yards on 11 carries while Brad Kimbro added 61 yards on 12 attempts for Brantley. Todd Hawthorne was the leading rusher for Kinston with 42 yards on 6 totes.

The football goes flying from the grasp of Matthew Barnes (82) after a hit from a Kinston Bulldog defender. Kinston fell 27-6 to finish the season with a 1-9 record.

New Brockton Blanks Zion Chapel 35-0

By: Jennifer Campbell

The New Brockton Gamecocks and Zion Chapel Rebels closed out their regular season last Friday night in a Class 2A, Area 5 clash in Rebel Stadium, with the visiting Gamecocks carrying home a 35-0 victory.

The win upped New Brockton's record to 9-1 on the year and 3-0 in Area 5 play, while Zion Chapel dropped to 3-7, 0-3 in the Area with the loss.

New Brockton wasted no time in getting on the scoreboard as they took the opening kick and marched 80 yards in 15 plays for the first touchdown of the night. Varrick Haynes had 43 yards in the drive while Myron Williams added 30 yards, including a 1-yard TD run. The p.a.t. went wide right, but with 5:40 remaining in the first stanza the Gamecocks owned a 6-0 lead.

Rebel Robert Smith returned the ensuing kickoff to his own 32-yardline to give his team good field position, only to see the ball fumbled away on the very next play. Brockton's Todd Clark fell on the loose pignin on the Rebel 27-yardline, and the Gamecocks seemed headed for another touch-down, only to be pushed back by penalties.

Unable to convert on a fourth-and-seventeen play the Rebels took over on their own 19-yardline. Four plays later a bobbled snap led to a short punt which set up the Gamecocks' second score of the contest. New Brockton took over at the Zion Chapel 47-yardline and went the distance in 12 plays with Myron Williams again going in from one yard out. NB quarterback Curt Smith carried the ball in for the two-point conversion, and with 7:20 left in the first half the Gamecocks had stretched their lead to 14-0.

On their next possession the Rebels marched into Gamecock territory behind the running of Thomas Boswell and Robert Smith only to see the drive die at the NB 42-yardline and following a delay-of-game penalty they punted the ball out of bounds at the Brockton 13-yardline. The Gamecocks used two running plays to wind down the clock and they carried a 14-0 margin into halftime.

The opening drive of the second half was a wild one as Zion Chapel returned the kickoff to their own 19-yardline. Two plays later a 10-yard penalty pushed the Rebels back to their 11-yardline and proved more than the home team could overcome. However, the fourth-down play drew a roughing-the-kicker call and the Rebels had new life at their 29-yardline.

The stingy Gamecock defense again went to work and held Zion short of a first down, only to see their special team give away 15 yards on a personal foul to set up Zion Chapel at midfield. Still unable to get the ground attack rolling the Rebels finally gave the ball up on a punt that carried to the Brockton 21-yardline.

On their first possession of the third quarter the Gamecocks turned the duties over to Myron Williams who rolled up 75 yards on eight carries to dominate the drive, while Curt Smith scored on a half-yard dive. Toby Lee added the point after as the visiting Gamecocks began to pull away with 11:58 remaining in the game.

The ensuing Zion Chapel drive ended after only three plays as defensive back Dennis Griffin picked off a Roland Bell pass and returned it to the 28-yardline. The drive met opposition, and four plays later the Rebels had the ball back on downs at their 28-yardline. This time it took Brockton only two plays to gain possession of the ball again as Britt Blissett grabbed an overthrown Rebel pass at the 37-yardline.

This time New Brockton took advantage of the turnover as Myron Williams covered the distance on three carries including a 15-yard scoring romp. Lee added the extra point, and with 7:17 remaining on the clock the Gamecocks were in control with a 28-0 margin.

Robert Smith took the kickoff at his own 4-yardline and returned it to the Rebel 19 where Zion Chapel began an aerial attack that made their biggest threat of the evening, driving all the way to the Brockton 28-yardline. The Rebels saw their scoring hopes dashed as Dennis Griffin picked off his second interception of the evening and returned the ball to the NB 32-yardline.

The Gamecocks drove 68 yards in 11 plays for their final touchdown of the night, with reserve quarterback Donnie Smith driving to paydirt on a 1-yard plunge. With 1:05 showing on the clock Toby Lee split the uprights as New Brockton sealed the win with a 35-0 margin.

Zion Chapel's Thomas Boswell set the Rebels up at their 21-yardline after his kickoff return. But it just wasn't meant to be for the Rebels as Curt Smith picked off a ZC pass in the closing seconds of the game to shut out their final threat.

Gamecock Myron Williams led all rushers with 191 yards on 26 carries and three touchdowns. Other New Brockton ball carriers were Varrick Haynes with 43 yards on 7 carries. Curt Smith with 56 yards on 8 carries, Donnie Smith with 45 yards on 13 carries and Brad Smith with 8 yards on 1 carry.

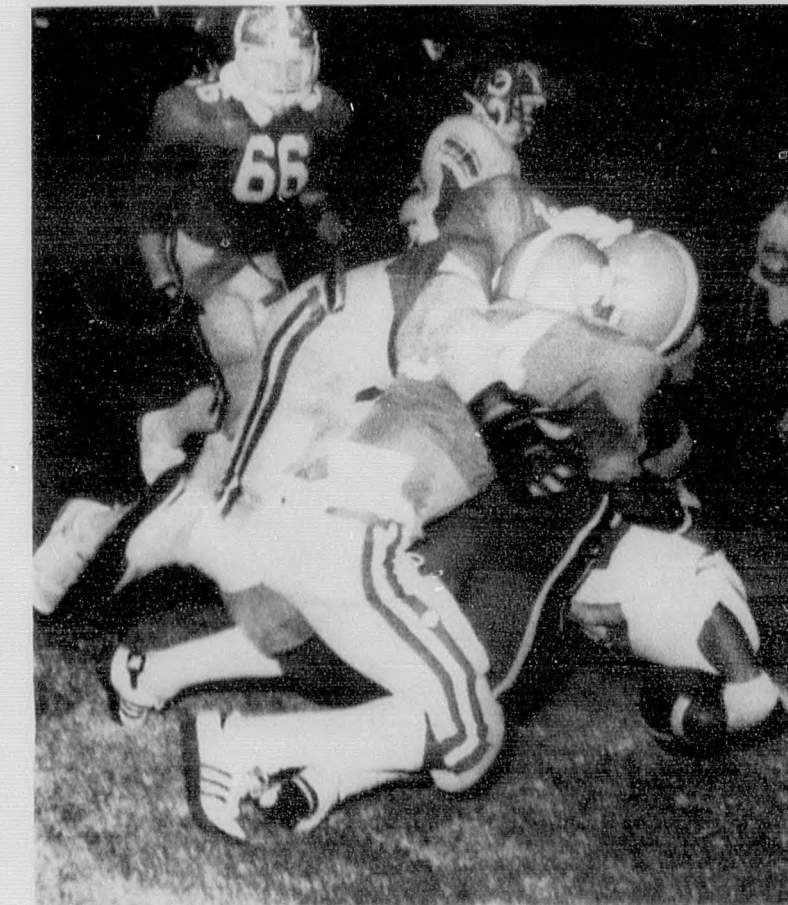

Running the ball for Zion Chapel were Thomas Boswell who rushed for 29 yards on 8 tries, Robert Smith

New Brockton running back Myron Williams (26) heads upfield for a big gain in last week's 35-0 win over Zion Chapel. Williams gained 191 yards and scored three touchdowns to lead New Brockton to the win.

Zion Chapel running back Thomas Boswell (24) turns the corner on Gamecock defender Jimmy Cassel (67) enroute to a big gain in last week's cross-county battle.

An unidentified New Brockton runner is stopped for a short gain by Zion Chapel defenders Robert Smith (34) and Greg Little (72). David Johnson (66) closes in to help.

New Brockton To Host Goodwater In Opening Round Of 2A Playoffs

The New Brockton Gamecocks will begin their quest for the Class 2A state football championship this Friday night when they host the Area 6 runner-up Goodwater Yellow-jackets at Gamecock Stadium.

The Gamecocks carry a 9-1 record into the playoffs, including a 9-game winning streak following a season-opening 7-0 loss to Daleville. The wins have come over Arton 33-8, W.S. Neal 21-0, Florala 49-26, Red Level 21-14, Brantley 14-6, Goshen 23-7, Coffee Springs 42-20, Highland Home 48-14 and Zion Chapel 35-0.

The New Brockton offense, which is averaging 28.6 points a game, is a ground attack led by the state's top 1-2 punch of Myron Williams and Varrick Haynes. Williams is a 149-pound scabback, gained 1,375 yards during the season on 161 carries, while teammate Haynes, a 180-pound power back, added 1,351 yards on 159 carries to give the Gamecocks an unstoppable duo.

Quarterback Curt Smith complements the duo with his ability to both run and pass, and the 155-pound senior hit on 25 of 58 passes during the season for 222 yards.

The Gamecocks offense is led by a strong offensive line that opens holes in opposing defensive units and takes pride in seeing points filter on the scoreboard.

The Gamecock defense relies primarily on the same players from season and was particularly strong in the second half after wearing down its challengers.

Goodwater, which finished behind Area 2 runner Reelton, posted a 2-8 record during the regular season, losing to Randolph County, Lineville (55-0), Talladega County Training, Reelton (40-0), B.B. Comer, Clay County (21-0), Winterboro (35-14) and Jemison (40-0), while claiming wins over D.C. Wolfe and Coosa County.

Smith's Grandson Wins Halloween Story Award

Brannon Boswell, fifth-grade student at Peter Crump Elementary School in Montgomery, and son of Mr. and Mrs. James Keith Boswell (Elba High School graduates), recently won first place in the official "Ghost Story Contest," sponsored by the Advertiser Co.'s Newspaper in Education program.

As winner Brannon received $50, and his teacher for the gift, also received $50 for instructional materials for the classroom.

Grandparents are Kedzie Smith, Elba, and Manuel Smith, Elba, and Mr. and Mrs. James Boswell, Montgomery.

Brannon's story, which follows, was published in the October 31, 1986, issue of The Montgomery Advertiser:

THE MANOR PARTY

One evening in West Virginia, the Edward family was throwing a grand party to celebrate their daughter's marriage. The Manor House had been decorated and the dinner hall had crepe paper flowers and pine cones placed festively around the fireplace.

Soon the guests began to arrive and finally the newlyweds came down the stairs to be showered with gifts and congratulations. And so the party began. In the middle of dinner, two servants came and ushered the parents into the nearby foyer. "The house is on fire, sir," said the butler. "It caught to the crepe paper flowers and pine cones and it's done burned down the billiard room and now it's working on the music room."

The parents told the guests the unhappy news. The bride cried so much that her parents decided to move the party out of doors. So the servants carried the carpet out onto the lawn and placed the tables on it. And so the party carried on for hours as the house burned down.

Everyone was so busy eating and dancing that no one noticed that the carpet had caught fire. Soon the tablecloths were ablaze. And in no time at all the whole manor, including the grounds, was an inferno. The bride, bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Edward, guests and servants all met a fiery end. Today nothing stands where this huge house used to stand and on a peaceful night you can still hear the rattle of utensils and the laughing voices and maybe sometimes even the flames blazing in the night.

Nursing Home Spotlight

With Shirley Wise

Well, here we are again! Not only has another week gone by, but so quickly at that.

For a few interesting facts about the month of November: November is the eleventh month of the year, "Novem" being the latin word for "nine." In the Roman Calendar November was the 9th month. Because July was named for Julius Caesar, the Roman Senate offered to name the 11th month for Tiberius Caesar. He modestly refused, saying, "What will you do if you have 12 emperors?"

Originally there were 30 days in November, then 19, then 31. From the time of Augustus, it has had 30. Election Day in the U.S. falls on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of the month. Thanksgiving is celebrated on the 4th Thursday, and Children's Book Week (of which most of us are unaware, I imagine) is also observed in November. (I didn't know that either.)

The topaz is the November birthstone, and the special flower of the month is the chrysanthemum. So much for the facts about November.

Now we will meet the Very Special Person who is in our Sr. Spotlight this week at the Elba Nursing Home. She is Miss Teresa Brunson, a lovely lady whom most of you probably already know, and perhaps be related to as Miss Teresa has lots of kinfoks. She was born to parents who came from large families - 15 brothers and sisters on her father's side, and 12 on her mother's.

Miss Teresa was born January 19, 1915, in the Woodland Grove Community, the daughter of Benjamin Stephens Brunson, whom everyone called "Ben" and Miss Lena Hammond Brunson.

She told us her father was named after a Mr. Benjamin Stephens, who was the probate judge of Coffee County at one time. Her father owned a feed mill located approximately where the Western Auto store is today; he owned lots of rental property and bought and sold real estate.

In appearance Miss Teresa is a short, slightly plump lady with short, straight hair. She has a pleasant personality and a friendly smile. She, like lots of other folks (My name unmentioned), loves to talk and enjoys a good conversation. She is unable to hear without her hearing aid, but she turned it up and we got along just fine, and had a nice visit. Although Miss Teresa has lots of aunts and uncles on both sides of her family, she has only one half-brother - Guy Brunson, who resides in New Brockton. He was married to Mary Hardwick, who is now deceased. They had five daughters: Madeline, Linda, Rebecca, Edwina and Iris.

Mr. Guy is an antique dealer/collector.

Miss Teresa had one sister who died as an infant. Aunts and uncles on her mother's side, all of whom are deceased, are: Bessie, who was married to George Blair, and they were residents of Florida; Miss Lou, who remained unmarried, and resided in Florida; Mamie, who was married to Tom Yarborough, and they made their home in Florida; Abby, a brother who never married; Guy, Jimmy, twins Alto and Alton - Alton died at age 9 months; Bill; Ralph, who died at the age of 16; and Dan.

Her father's siblings, all of whom are deceased, are:

Arthur Clair, who was married to the former Victoria Dubose, and upon her death from typhoid fever later married the former Velma Rowe, and he lived in Elba; Clanton, a resident of Samson, who was married to the former Della Allen; Mose, who was residing in Florida and was married to the former Monnie Moore; Frost, who was married to the former Kate Siquetfield and lived in Elba; Matthew, who was married and lived in Andalusia; Paul and Dewitt, who died as young men; Lily Grant; Willa, a resident of New Brockton, who was married to Curt Hutchison; Kate, who lived in Bonifay, Fla., and was married to Cam McKinnon; Ruby, who lived in Enterprise and was married to Charlie Rowe; and two babies who died as infants.

We spoke with Miss Teresa's first cousin, Margaret Smith, who had the following nice things to say about her:

"Teresa is really very intelligent. Her lack of hearing has been her drawback; even as a child her hearing was bad. If she had had good hearing, there is no telling what she might have accomplished - or if she could have attended the schools of today with all their special education programs for the handicapped."

"She can bring you up-to-date on international affairs and government. She tells me things I don't even know; she is very well-informed and reads a lot, especially newspapers and magazines. She takes two newspapers and has subscriptions to numerous magazines."

"She watches television a lot and loves to watch the early news on television."

When we dropped in for a visit, however, she was "junking," watching one of my soaps, as it was not time for the news yet! She wants to be informed - she loves to talk on the telephone.

Miss Teresa Brunson

Teresa had to wear braces as a child. Her grandmother Hammond and Aunt Lou took up so much time with her when she was little, teaching her to read and write, working with her and teaching her at home. "She loved her mother's family dearly; they were all so good to her. She was just a pet to them all, and had plenty of attention. Aunt Lena was a wonderful person - I really loved her."

She loves the holidays, especially Christmas, Easter, Halloween and Valentine's Day; and she loves animals, especially cats. "Teresa loves to go places, travel; and on several occasions, she, my mother and I went on short trips, among them Birmingham and Leeds, where we visited a cousin, Lamar Brunson, who took us to his cabin on a lake."

Another time we went to Talladega and just saw the countryside. Enroute there, we visited Mrs. Bolling (Mac) Cooper in Columbia. We visited Tuscaloosa and Moundville and toured the mounds because Teresa loves history. We had talked about visiting Disney World, but just never got around to it. We've visited the malls in Montgomery many times.

"She's a very friendly person and is concerned about people."

When we read to Miss Teresa what Margaret had said, about being her Aunt Lou's "pet," she laughed delightedly and agreed that she was, adding, "Lou cooked for everybody - she was a good cook!" This was spoken with great enthusiasm.

Miss Teresa is a member of the Elba First Baptist Church. She told us, "I like the color red, but I like lots of colors." Regarding her favorite flower, she said, "Well, I just like all of them - roses, red and yellow 4 o'clocks - I remember playing with them in my grandmother's yard."

She agreed with what "Marg" (her name for Margaret) had previously told us, that "I do love the holidays - Christmas, Valentine's."

American Legion To Meet Thursday

The American Legion and Auxiliary will meet Thursday, November 6, 1986 at 7:00 p.m. at Legion Home in Elba for the regular monthly meeting.

Commander, Wayne Harrison and President of Auxiliary, Mrs. Mildred Willis, announce that this will be an important meeting as plans will be made for Veteran's Day programs; such as turkey shoots, poppy sales and membership drives. Legion will furnish center cut ham and Auxiliary members will bring covered dishes.

Lawsuit challenges wet-dry election results

A lawsuit was filed late Monday afternoon challenging the results of the recent wet-dry election in Elba. The suit, filed by Attorney Bill Stokes, charges misconduct, illegal votes, rejection of legal votes and intimidation of electors.

The official vote canvass of the election as certified by the city council showed the voters preferred to remain within the legal sale of alcoholic beverages within the city limits of Elba. The vote was 608 NO to the legal sale, and 572 YES to the legal sale.

Stokes filed the suit on behalf of Pete Daugherty, Pat Daugherty, Regina Rushing and Tonya Chandler. Defendants in the case are the City of Elba, Mayor Bob English, Council members John W. Sharpless, Jack Prescott, Malcolm Davis, Frances Williams, Gladys Yelverton and City Clerk Dud English.

Bond cost to cover the cost of the challenge in case the court rules against the plaintiffs were guaranteed by five Coffee County citizens, including three men with local business interests.

Section 4 of the complaint reads: "plaintiffs allege that said election should be set aside and held for naught or that this Court upon a final hearing should determine that the results of said election should be held for naught and void and that a new election should be ordered by the Court for and on account of the following: a) Misconduct, fraud or corruption on the part of polling officials and/or other persons; (b) On account of illegal votes; (c) On account of the rejection of legal votes; (d) Intimidation of electors or other misconduct calculated to prevent a fair, free and full exercise of the elective franchise." Court papers were being prepared Wednesday and delivered to all parties in the case. No dates have been set to hear the case, etc.

City of Elba receives $69,000 lease payment

The Elba City Council met Monday at 5 p.m. and handled a very short agenda. The police chief report, request for an attorney general opinion and payment of bills, along with announcement that payment of $69,000 had been received on the hydro dam lease, completed the meeting.

Mayor Bob English asked the council to approve a request to seek an opinion from the Alabama attorney general on the legality of changing the contract with Waste Away on the pickup of garbage. English explained that it was possible that the several changes couldn't be made without rebidding the contract. To remove any doubt, he wanted to get a legal ruling.

Councilman Jack Prescott wanted to be sure that all facts were stated, as the attorney general rulings are often based on the way the questions are presented. John Sharpless said he had no problem with the contract as changed, but it was also fine to get a ruling. Gladys Yelverton said, "We have a whole new contract now and I would like to be sure we are right."

A motion by Yelverton and seconded by Malcolm Davis was approved unanimously.

Chief John White reported the new machine to test drunk drivers has arrived and three officers have been trained and certified to operate the $5,000 machine. It was required by the health department to replace the old PEI machine that could spread germs while blowing up the balloon.

Bills totaling $16,882 were approved for payment. They included $760 for publishing the voters list, $3800 for the drunk meter (discounted on state bid prices), $670 for swimming pool chlorine; $800 for street sweeper repairs; $1160 to fix air conditioners at the Reserve Center; $1623 for insurance and $2185 for gasoline.

English reported the city had received the $69,000 check for lease of the Elba hydro dam, and said the money was on a CD at the bank. Of the $69,000 is disposable funds and $17,000 must be held in escrow. This fund is to repay the money borrowed from the federal government to conduct the feasibility study on renovating the dam. If the project was possible the money was to be repaid, and if not possible it would have been considered a grant. The $17,000 is only half the funds, and the others will be paid by the firm if the city fails to get the loan treated as a grant. If it is classified a grant, the $17,000 will go back to the leasing firm.

Dorsey Trailers begins sales talk

Officials of the Dorsey Corporation announced last week the company was pursuing the sale of Dorsey Trailers, Inc., and that the company was engaged in preliminary discussions with private purchasers regarding the terms of any such sale.

John T. Pollock, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of the corporation, officially announced the sale talks on Thursday, Nov. 6, in a press release issued from corporate headquarters in Chattanooga, Tenn. In making the announcement, Pollock stated that while the discussions were underway with private investors, no sale agreement had been reached.

Dorsey Trailers president George Collier, in a letter to all company employees, stated the proposed purchasers had stated plans to maintain Dorsey Trailers as a "viable cargo trailer manufacturer and to strengthen Dorsey's position in the marketplace."

Collier also noted the investors had indicated that present management and operations would continue in place at the Elba plant.

School Board approves field trips

The Elba City Board of Education held its regular monthly meeting on Thursday night, Nov. 6, and in a short meeting handled only routine matters.

The meeting began at 5:00 p.m. with all members present, and after the routine approval of minutes the board reviewed the monthly financial statement. The statement showed the board again had enough funds to meet all expenses without borrowing funds; however, Supt. Billy Crews warned the members that the need to borrow money could very well occur again should an unexpected expenditure arrive.

Three requests for field trips were approved by the board and the approvals concerned a trip by gifted students to the planetarium in Montgomery, a trip to a math tournament by senior high mathematics students, and a trip to the Alabama Shakespeare Festival by senior literature students. All trips will involve students missing one day of school.

In other action at the 30-minute meeting, the board:

- was told bids on construction of the new music building would be opened on Dec. 11 at 2 p.m. at the central office;
- stated the planned re-routing of Highway 84 in Elba would have no adverse effect on school buses traveling on the highway;
- was informed the football team had qualified for the Class 3A football playoffs; and
- adjourned until 5 p.m. on Dec. 11 for its next regular meeting.

Holiday celebrations topic of November historical society program

Holiday celebrations at the turn of the century will be the topic of the Pea River Historical Society program Sunday, Nov. 16.

Mrs. Sue Cobb will deliver the program in the Promenade Room of the Civic Center at 3 p.m. Everyone is invited.

Farm-City Week set for Nov. 20-27

Notwithstanding the drought conditions of this year, there are signs that the farm situation is beginning to take a turn for the better. That was the positive note on which the Farm-City Week Committee of Coffee County entered into this year's annual celebration.

Farm-City Week is designed to bring the urban and rural communities closer together, to help in doing this, a number of activities have been planned. Also, students in Special Education classes will visit the Moates and Boveam farms to witness first-hand what goes on on the farm.

Several civic clubs will feature speakers on farm topics, and to begin the series Tom Casaday, county agent, will speak to the Kiwanis Club.

Following Casaday will be Dr. John French, who will speak to the Enterprise Rotary Club, the Young Farmers-Banquet and the Enterprise Lions Club. He plans to feature a slide presentation on the farms in China.

Other clubs may arrange for speakers by calling chairman Faulk. Selected farmers will be guests at these clubs during the farm programs. It is also expected that they will receive gifts or gift certificates from local merchants.

Farm Bureau will hold a banquet in the Farm Center Community Room on Nov. 24, in which a number of farmers add 4-H members will be honored.

The production of a video program on the peanut industry is anticipated again this year, and displays of peanut products are expected to be made by merchants throughout the county during the week. In addition, a number of peanut recipes will be featured in the news media, including the winning recipe from the National Peanut Festival in Dothan, by Miss Della Ellis.

The judges have selected the Frank Britt farm south of Enterprise as Distinguished Farm of the Year, and this farm will be entered into state competition also.

County residents need permits

At its last regular meeting on Oct. 27, the Coffee County Commission discussed policy concerning the construction of driveways and turnouts on county rights-of-way.

The commission agreed with the recommendations of the county engineer that a permit be required for all new construction of driveways in the county. Residents should call the county engineer's office in New Brockton at 894-6112 to request a permit; this should be done at least two weeks prior to the date the new turnout is needed. A representative from the engineering department will then inspect the site to determine the size and quantity of pipe required.

As soon as the permit application is returned to the engineer's office a work order will be issued to construct the turnout. Residents must furnish new pipe of the size and quantity specified on the permit, and county forces will then construct the turnout to county specifications.

Pipe may be purchased from several local vendors in the county. For additional information contact the county engineer's office or any member of the Coffee County Commission.

Probate Judge Marion Brunson administers the oath of office to recently elected County Commissioner Crittenden prior to Monday's commission meeting. Several members of the Crittenden family were on hand for the ceremony along with friends and supporters.

Crittenden takes office as first black member of commission

The Coffee Commission met in regular session on Monday, Nov. 10 at the courthouse in Enterprise and took on a new look as newly-elected Commissioner Damascus Crittenden joined the group after being sworn in by Probate Judge Marion Brunson.

The swearing-in ceremonies took place prior to the meeting at Crittenden, flanked by family and friends, took the oath of office and then took his place with the commission as its first black member.

Judge Brunson explained after the swearing-in that he would remain as chairman of the commission until the next commission takes office in 1989, but that with the addition of Crittenden to the commission he would no longer have a vote.

After the routine approval of the minutes, the first order of business was to open bids on fencing material to be used by the engineering department to replace fences damaged by county work crews. Farmers Mutual Exchange received the contract with a low bid of $3,649.80, while the other bidder was Coffee County Farmers Co-op with a bid of $3,908.58.

Ronnie Kelley, president of the Coffee County Firefighters Association, spoke on behalf of the association and asked the commission to impose the tobacco tax as approved by the people at the recent election. Kelley reported the association would present an annual report to the commission on how the funds were used.

The commission voted to seek implementation of the tax as soon as possible and instructed the county attorney to prepare the necessary paperwork.

After the routine approval of the minutes, the commission: was told it was illegal to grant a sales tax exemption to contractors that had projects underway at the time of the adoption of the new countywide 1-cent sales tax; held a public hearing on the application of a Community Block Grant for a total of $500,000 to be used to expand and connect rural water lines;

approved a change in the operation of the landfill to keep the landfill open from 7 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. during weekdays and to close it on weekends;

was told the four new motor graders would arrive this week to replace the defective ones purchased previously;

recommended the county engineer for staying within his budget for the past year and having funds remaining; appointed Mrs. Leland Weeks to fill the unexpired term of Myrna Rhodes on the Coffee County Human Resource Board;

and heard Comm. Sid Averett state that when the county began receiving its share of the sales tax he would make a motion to earmark a portion of the funds to go to the county health department.
